

YOU HAVE THE POWER

Nurses make a tremendous difference in people's lives around the clock, 24-hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days of the year.

TO BE WHATEVER

Nurses are there when you need them. Nurses are educated to anticipate and meet the needs of the whole person rather than simply the presenting health problem. A nurse's knowledge of disease and illness blends with the most up-to-date technologies and a caring approach to restore and maintain the health of an individual or family.

YOU WANT TO BE.

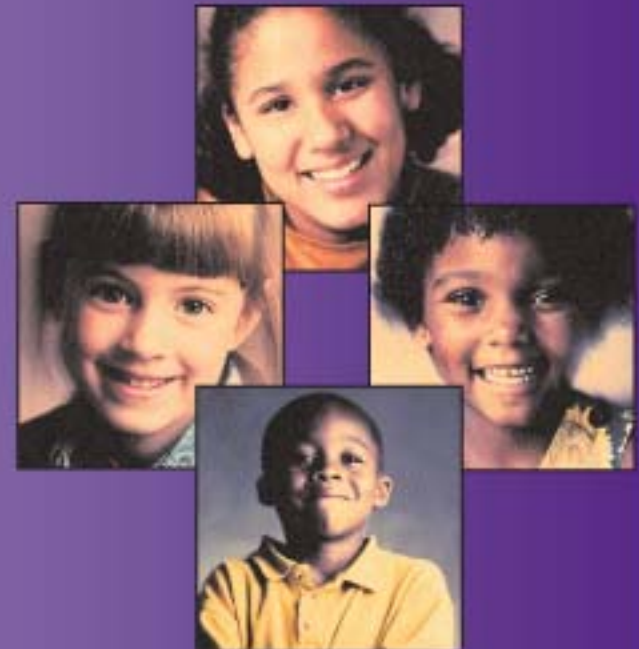

A career in nursing offers intellectual challenges, the use of science and technology, autonomy, a variety of work opportunities, career progression and security, and the chance to make a difference in life.

VARIETY

Nurses perform a variety of functions and work in a variety of settings. Nurses care for individuals who are healthy and ill, of all ages and cultural backgrounds and who have physical, psychological, social, and spiritual needs.

POWER

Nurses have power through the decisions they make each and every day. Nurses utilize critical thinking and problem solving skills, which can make the difference in life and death situations. Nurses make many decisions on their own, but they also work in a team environment with families, physicians, allied health professionals, and others.

SECURITY

Nurses make up the largest segment of the healthcare workforce. The demand for nursing services will increase as baby boomers age. Nursing is a competitive career with an unlimited range of opportunities.

FLEXIBILITY

A career in nursing offers flexibility in work schedules. You may work an eight-hour shift, 12-hour shift, weekends only or three days per week. The flexibility nursing provides allows you to go back to school, raise a family or simply enjoy life.

SATISFACTION

Nursing also provides satisfaction in knowing that you make a difference in the lives of others each day. It is very satisfying to apply professional skills in such a meaningful way.
